Welcome to the website of the Chinese Consulate General in New York. Our consular district covers ten states of the United States, including New York, Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and Vermont. The number of Chinese abroad in the consular district is great. Local finance, media, education, culture and tourist resources are enriched, and the basis for cultural exchanges and cooperation with China is great. The visa office is temporarily closed during the Covid-19 epidemic until further notice. Information required for consular authentication Application authentication procedure: Step 1: Notify your document from a local notary. Step 2: The document must be further authenticated by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Korea. Step 3: The document must be authenticated by the Chinese Embassy/Consulate General through CVASC. Documents to be submitted: 1. A duly completed and signed authentication form. 2. The original document to be authenticated. 3. The photocopy of the authentication page issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Korea (the signature page and the seal page). 4. The original and a photocopy of the passport of the applicant/ Korean driver ID/ Korean licence. 5. For commercial documents, please provide a photocopy of the Korean passport/ID of the legal representative of the company and of the original document of the company that can prove the legal status representative of the person. 6. If the application is submitted by an agent, please include a photocopy of the valid passport of the applicant/ Korean driver's license as well as © the original and a photocopy of the passport of the / Korean ID/ Korean driver. 7. Other supporting documents may require a consular officer. Other important information: 1. The document is true, legal and without content that violate the Chinese or threaten China's national or public interests. Consular officials of the del del delThe Embassy/General Consulate will review the documents to be authenticated. If there are problems, such as the incomplete process, the wrong document format, illegal content, modification or replacement of the document, the application will be rejected. 2A document with more than two pages must be properly bound as a volume to avoid any substitution. In order to ensure the integrity of the documents, sealing wax, stain sealing or steel closure should be applied. 3rd According to China's rules, a single status affidavit used for marriage registration in China is valid only for six months from the date of issue. If an applicant needs to use it after having been released for six months, he must obtain a new one-stop affidavit. 4.A document authenticated by the Chinese Embassy/Consulate General shall not be intentionally bound, released or altered. The applicant is solely responsible for all consequences and legal liability arising from his or her unauthorised binding, release or modification of the document. One role of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services is to develop the DS 160 and N-400 immigration forms. DS 160 is for people who want to apply for residency in the United States. Module N-400 is the module used for naturalisation candidates. Naturalisation vs. Residence Although the Constitution extends rights to both citizens and permanent residents, citizens have additional benefits, states US citizenship and immigration services. They can vote in federal elections, travel with an American passport and become an elected officer. Citizens also receive priority treatment when they want to bring their relatives to the United States as residents. This entails additional responsibilities like supporting the United States and serving the country through military service if USCIS supervises the demand process of citizenship in the United States. The first step in the demand for naturalization is completed and presenting presenting N-400. After that, the applicant must attend a biometric meeting and an interview. If USCIS approves the application, the individual takes the oath of fidelity and receives a Certificate of Naturalization. N-400Form N-400 is the official application for naturalization. USCIS provides a link to download a PDF file from this module with instructions to complete it. This form consists of 18 parts that begin with information about your suitability and end with the oath of fidelity. Persons completing the form must provide basic information on themselves, such as their name, country of birth and residence. They must also list the names of the schools they attended, marital history and details of criminal background. Individuals currently residing in the United States can fill in the form on line at the USCIS website. Those who wish to apply for military service, live outside the United States or wish to use an exemption tax must fill out a paper version of the form and send it by post. N-445Form N-445 is the Notice of Naturalization Ceremony Vow. Provides a list of items to take to the ceremony and a section with a series of questions to which the person can answer in a "yes" or "no" format. Individuals preparing to take the oath must sign the form to indicate the accuracy of the information. WorksheetNaturalization Eligibility Worksheet is a tool to help people determine whether they meet the requirements to become a citizen of the United States. It asks a series of questions about the age, residence status and military service of the individual who wants to apply for naturalisation. Other questions concern the ability of the person to communicate in English and the knowledge of the United States government. All answers require a 'true' or 'false' answer.
