Mormon tabernacle choir christmas music

In the spirit of Christmas, the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and Orchestra at Temple Square present you with our latest music video, "The Wexford Carol", and a collection of five complementary Christmas carols. "The Wexford Carol" music video is set to the song from the album Hallelujah! by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and Orchestra at Temple Square, featuring Laura Osnes, Martin Jarvis, and Metropolitan Opera Soloists. This emotional modern-day take on the prodigal son depicts a family dealing with disappointment and loss leading to a joyful reconciliation. Set to Mack Wilberg's stirring arrangement of the traditional Irish carol "The Wexford Carol," the video alludes to imagery found in the trilogy of parables found in Luke 15; the lost sheep, the lost coin, and the lost or prodigal son. The Wexford Carol (Music Video) Five hand-selected Christmas songs as your free gift We hope these wonderful carols will help you celebrate the season: • Away in a Manger, from the album: Sing, Choirs of Angels! • I Saw Three Ships, from the album: Rejoice and Be Merry! • O, Come, All Ye Faithful, from the album: The Wonder of Christmas • One December, Bright and Clear, from the album: Ring Christmas Bells • What Shall We Give?, from the album: Home for the Holidays Scroll down to view each individual track and view videos of the Choir performing these festive holiday pieces! Christmas with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, the annual holiday musical spectacular, welcomes Tony Award winning actress and TV star, Sutton Foster, and the Emmy-nominated stage and screen star Hugh Bonneville. This one-hour holiday spectacular premieres Monday, December 17, 2018, on PBS. Isaac Watts's 1719 paraphrase of Psalm 98, set to music by Lowell Mason, is now one of the most popular Christmas hymns in North America. In this high-spirited arrangement by Mack Wilberg, continuous running passagework in the orchestra and the addition of bells and herald-trumpet fanfares illustrate the excitement of the Christmas season. With Mack Wilberg's stirring arrangement, this carol, "Angels from the Realms of Glory," has become the signature finale at the Mormon Tabernacle Choir's annual Christmas concerts. The tune for this popular Christmas song comes from the 18th-century French carol "Les Anges dans nos Campagnes." Beginning simply with a solo violin playing a folkish jig, the Mormon Tabernacle Choir performs Wilberg's processional "Just Once a Year." With lyrics from Wilberg's long-time collaborator David Warner, this dance tune gradually gathers strength into a bustling production number, a festive folk dance in which the concert's guest artists, Sutton Foster and Hugh Bonneville, both participate. Mack Wilberg's crystalline arrangement of "Silent Night" premiered at the 2006 "Christmas at Luther" concert. The shimmering orchestration and hushed choral writing touched the audience deeply during the candle-lit performance. Here, the Mormon Tabernacle Choir & Orchestra at Temple Square perform Wilberg's "Silent Night" for the Christmas Special. Charles Gounod composed his three-part oratorio The Redemption in 1882. The oratorio was an immediate hit, and a favorite work at British choral festivals of the 19th century, with their massed choirs and large orchestras. In this performance, the Gabriel Trumpet Ensemble provides additional drama to the chorus's thrilling final fanfares. Hugh Bonneville narrates "It Is Well with My Soul," written by David Warner, and set to music by Mack Wilberg. "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "It Is Well with My Soul" are performed by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir as part of the piece. The story of Horatio and Anna Spafford is one of determination and faith amid devastating, crippling tragedy. The familiar, beloved account of Christ's birth found in the Gospel of St. Luke has long been the traditional centerpiece of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir's Christmas concerts. In this concert, Hugh Bonneville's narration is accompanied by a gentle orchestral meditation that incorporates musical motifs drawn from "Silent Night." Hugh Bonneville talks about what Christmas means to him, and describes his experience making the annual holiday musical spectacular, 'Christmas with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir'. This one-hour holiday spectacular premieres Monday, December 17, 2018, on PBS. Sutton Foster talks about what Christmas means to her, and describes her experience making the annual holiday musical spectacular, 'Christmas with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir'. This one-hour holiday spectacular premieres Monday, December 17, 2018, on PBS. Hugh Bonneville talks about the meaning behind 'It Is Well With My Soul,' the tale that he narrates for 'Christmas with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir', and why it is a story we can all relate to.
